 - 1) To establish a new 3D order for THE COMPANY Products, You or Your Practice will need to send certain patient-specific information to THE COMPANY, such as name, address, phone number, recommended product, which, in most cases, can be accomplished through using THE COMPANY’s eRX solution. In select cases, You can advise Your Patient to call or visit the THE COMPANY’s website to order THE COMPANY’s Products.
- B. Option 2: Patient Connect Retail: If You want to sell the initial supply of THE COMPANY Products to Customers in Your office, THE COMPANY will sell THE COMPANY’s Products to Your Practice, on a wholesale basis, for Your Practice to maintain in inventory and sell or otherwise start the Customer in Your office with their first supply.
 - 1) The practice will then connect the customer to THE COMPANY for future 3D orders;
 - 2) To establish a new 3D order for THE COMPANY Products, You or Your Practice, with THE COMPANY’s assistance, will create a THE COMPANY transaction report in your EHR or PMS, that will contain specific information about the customers who purchased their initial supply in your office, such as name, address, phone number and recommended product;
 - 3) The transaction report will be transmitted to THE COMPANY on a bi-weekly basis (15th & 30th of each month).
- C. Doctor Directed Delivery (3D) Services Provided by THE COMPANY (For Both Options): THE COMPANY will support Your Practice’s sale of THE COMPANY Products through 3D sales, by doing the following:
 - 1) Relieve Your Practice of the need to order, maintain, and store the inventory necessary for such sales;
 - 2) On behalf of Your Practice, manage the sale, by Your Practice, of THE COMPANY’s Products ordered through THE COMPANY on a 3D basis, and collect payments for those Products;
 - 3) Take care of shipping THE COMPANY’s Products, ordered on a 3D basis through THE COMPANY, directly to Customers, and if the 3D option is selected, shipping charges to the Customer will be waived (shipping charges will only be waived on subscription orders, not on one-time orders);
 - 4) Maintain a staff of trained Product Advisors who can answer questions regarding the use of THE COMPANY Products, and who will follow-up if subscription orders are cancelled or modified, to determine the reason for cancellation or modification; and
 - 5) Provide You with reports and/or on-line access to relevant information concerning Your Partner Account, and the status of compliance by Customers with Your recommendations for THE COMPANY Products ordered on a 3D basis.
- D. Revenue: On and after the Effective Date, the revenue from all sales of THE COMPANY

Products, to Customers, whether an Office Sale as described in Section 2.B above, or a 3D sale as described in Section 2.A above, will be Your Practice's revenue.

1) THE COMPANY will, on Your behalf, bill and collect from Customers for all sales of THE COMPANY's Products made on a 3D basis, and will report those revenues to You.

E. Reporting: THE COMPANY will also report the following to You:

1) The Product Cost to the Partner of THE COMPANY's Products sold to Your Practice for: (i) Your Practice's inventory, and (ii) resale to Customers on a 3D basis; and

2) THE COMPANY's Services Fees related to the THE COMPANY's Products resold to Customers on a 3D basis.

F. Product Cost To Partner: The current Product Costs to Partner's of THE COMPANY's Products are set forth in the current Product Cost to Partner Schedule attached to this Agreement or otherwise provided to You by or on behalf of THE COMPANY. Product Costs to Partners are subject to change from time to time by THE COMPANY at its sole discretion. THE COMPANY will make reasonable efforts to inform all Partners of changes to the Product Cost To THE COMPANY Partner Schedule, and copies of the then current Product Cost To THE COMPANY Partner Schedule will be available from THE COMPANY 30 days prior to change.

G. Services Fee: The current non-discounted and discounted Services Fee(s) is (are) set forth in the current Services Fee Schedule attached to this Agreement or otherwise provided to You by or on behalf of THE COMPANY. Services Fees are subject to change from time to time by THE COMPANY at its sole discretion. THE COMPANY will make reasonable efforts to inform all Partners of changes to the Services Fee Schedule, and copies of the then current Services Fee Schedule will be available from THE COMPANY 30 days prior to change.

H. Discounted Fees: THE COMPANY Service Fees are set to reflect the fair-market value of the infrastructure, THE COMPANY has built and the services it provides to support Partners and their customers in connection with the sale of THE COMPANY's Products. THE COMPANY generally sets its non-discounted Service Fees for each Product to equal the difference between the recommended retail price of the product when sold to a Customer, and the Product Cost to Partners of such product. If, however, You initiate at least one (1) new Subscription customer in a calendar month, then, for the following calendar month, THE COMPANY will apply discounted Service Fees, as per the then current Services Fee Schedule, for all 3D resales made to Customers, on behalf of Your Practice, during that following month.

I. Retained Revenue: THE COMPANY will, on a monthly basis, debit the cumulative Product Costs to Partners of Products sold to Your Practice, as well as the cumulative Services Fees for such sales, from the revenues collected by THE COMPANY from the 3D sales of THE COMPANY's Products to Your Customers. THE COMPANY will then credit Your Partner Account for all Retained Revenues.

1) Your Retained Revenues may vary each month based on numerous factors including Your volume of 3D sales, whether You initiate at least one (1) new Subscription sale in a calendar month, Your THE COMPANY Product mix, possible future changes to THE COMPANY's suggested retail prices, the Product Costs to the Partner of THE COMPANY's Products, and the applicable Services Fees.

J. Compliance With THE COMPANY Policies and Procedures: THE COMPANY will adopt, from time to time, policies and procedures concerning the sale and resale of THE COMPANY's Products, support of THE COMPANY's partners and customers, compliance with applicable rules and regulations, and other matters concerning its business. THE COMPANY will make You aware of these policies and procedures, 30 days prior to their effective date, and will provide training and guidance to answer questions and assist Partners in understanding and complying with these policies and procedures. You agree to comply with all such policies and procedures, as reasonably practicable and to inform THE COMPANY if You, or anyone else in Your Practice, has any questions or issues concerning them. Failure to comply with THE COMPANY's policies and procedures could cause THE COMPANY to close Your Partner Account and terminate your status as a Partner.

- K. Additional Steps: You may be asked, from time to time, to take certain additional steps necessary to enable THE COMPANY to provide its services. For example, You may need to allow the installation of software on Your Practice's computer systems to provide a link between your office systems and THE COMPANY. For each of these steps, You will be given a separate explanation of the needed action on Your part, and You will have the opportunity to agree or disagree. However, if You don't agree to a step that is necessary for THE COMPANY to operate under these Terms and Conditions, then that could cause THE COMPANY to have to close Your THE COMPANY Partner Account and terminate your status as a THE COMPANY Partner.
- 1) In connection with any installation of software on Your computer systems, to provide a link between Your office systems and THE COMPANY, THE COMPANY agrees that at all times it shall keep confidential Your information, Your Practice's information, and any information pertaining to Your Customers and Your Patients, and shall use such information only for the limited purposes set forth in these Terms and Conditions.

3. Sales Taxes

- A. Applicable Rules: Different states and municipalities have varying rules concerning sales and similar taxes. Sales of dietary supplements and nutraceutical products, like THE COMPANY's Products, are often, but not always, exempt from state and local sales taxes. Depending, however, on which state and municipality Your Practice is located in, there may be state and/or local sales taxes due from Customers in connection with their purchase of THE COMPANY's Products from Your Practice, including sales made on a 3D basis and managed by THE COMPANY on Your behalf. You are encouraged to check with Your tax advisor concerning all tax questions or issues.
- B. Our Respective Responsibilities: If the state and/or municipality in which Your Practice is located assesses state and/or local sales taxes in connection with the sale of THE COMPANY's Products to Customers from Your Practice, it will be the responsibility of Your Practice to collect those applicable sales taxes, if any, from Customers, and, in such circumstances, to remit those collected taxes to the applicable state and local taxing authorities. This includes, if applicable, taxes on sales made to Customers on a 3D basis and managed by THE COMPANY on Your behalf. THE COMPANY will assist You in this regard by billing Customers, on behalf of Your Practice, for any applicable sales taxes on 3D sales. THE COMPANY will then, on a monthly basis, pass on to Your Practice all such collected sales taxes, for remittance by Your Practice to the appropriate taxing authorities. THE COMPANY will also give Your Practice the information it will need to include such taxes in the sales or other tax returns You or Your Practice files with the applicable local and state taxing authorities. THE COMPANY will not, however, be responsible for remitting any taxes to any taxing authority, or filing any local or state sales tax returns, on Your behalf, or on behalf of Your Practice, unless this Agreement is accompanied by the Sales Tax Addendum to Partner Services Agreement.
- C. Resale Certificates: If Your state allows You to present a resale certificate or similar paperwork that would allow THE COMPANY to not charge Your Practice with state or local sales taxes on the wholesale sale from THE COMPANY to Your Practice, when such wholesale sales are made for the purpose of Your resale to Customers, then THE COMPANY will accept such paperwork, provided it has been fully and accurately completed, and in such circumstances THE COMPANY will not charge Your Practice for those taxes. This will not, however, have any effect on any obligation Your Practice may have, if applicable in Your state and municipality, to collect and remit sales taxes from Customers, as set forth in Section 3.B above.

- D. Confidentiality: “Confidential Information: These Terms and Conditions, including all THE COMPANY Product pricing and THE COMPANY Services Fees, and any confidential and/proprietary information of either party disclosed to the other party under these Terms and Conditions, shall be held by both parties in confidence and not disclosed to any third party during the Term of this Agreement and for two (2) years thereafter, except to the extent required to be disclosed by law or by the order of a court of similar judicial or administrative body; provided, however, that the disclosing party agrees to notify the other party of any such disclosure requirement immediately and in writing, and shall cooperate in obtaining a protective or similar order with respect to such disclosure requirement.
- E. HIPAA Business Associate Agreement: To establish a new 3D order for THE COMPANY’s Products, You or Your Practice may need to send certain patient-specific information to THE COMPANY, such as name, address, phone number, recommended product, etc. THE COMPANY will then use this information to set-up the order and provide the services to Your Practice in support 3D sales, as set forth in Section 2.A above, including shipping, billing, and providing product support to Your Customers. THE COMPANY will, therefore, function as a Business Associate to You, or Your Practice, as that term is defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”). HIPAA requires, in such circumstances, that there be a signed Business Associate Agreement in place between the Covered Entity (Your Practice) and the Business Associate (THE COMPANY), in order to ensure that the Customers’ individually identifiable information is protected in accordance with HIPAA requirements. The Business Associate Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.” Both You and THE COMPANY must sign the Acknowledgement to the Business Associate Agreement for it to be legally in effect.
- F. Confidential Information: These Terms and Conditions, including all Product pricing and Services Fees, and any confidential and/or proprietary information of THE COMPANY disclosed to You under these Terms and Conditions, shall be held by You in confidence and not disclosed to any third party during the Term of this Agreement and for two (2) years thereafter, except to the extent required to be disclosed by law or by the order of a court or similar judicial or administrative body; provided, however, that You agree to notify THE COMPANY of any such disclosure requirement immediately and in writing, and shall cooperate with THE COMPANY, at THE COMPANY’s expense, in obtaining a protective or similar order with respect to such disclosure requirement.
- G. Survival: The provisions of this Section 3 concerning confidentiality shall survive termination of this Agreement.

4. Pricing and Returns

- A. Retail Pricing: To ensure fairness to all Partners and their customers, THE COMPANY will provide suggested retail prices for all THE COMPANY’s Products. You agree to sell THE COMPANY Products only at the suggested retail prices, unless such Products are given to Customers free of charge by You from Your Practice’s inventory.
- B. Changes to Pricing: THE COMPANY may, from time to time, change the suggested retail price for any of THE COMPANY’s Products. If this occurs, THE COMPANY will notify You of the new suggested retail prices 30 days prior to change
- C. No Internet Sales: You agree that neither You nor Your Practice will sell any THE COMPANY’s Product over the internet or by any other electronic ordering means, other than sales on a 3D basis as set forth in these Terms and Conditions.

- D. Returns: To ensure fairness to all THE COMPANY Partners and their customers, You agree that returns and/or refunds on any sales made under this Agreement shall be governed exclusively by THE COMPANY's policies and procedures, which shall be made available to You upon request and are subject to change from time to time at THE COMPANY's discretion.

5. Intellectual Property

All of THE COMPANY's materials, logos, distinctive designs, packaging, etc. belong to THE COMPANY and may be used by You and Your Practice only with permission, and only as long as You maintain Your status as a Partner in good standing. The provisions of this Section 5 concerning intellectual property shall survive termination of this Agreement.

6. Complaints and Adverse Events

If You or anyone in Your Practice learn of any complaint about THE COMPANY's Products involving a real or possible product defect or adverse reaction in a product user, You agree to promptly (within one (1) business day) submit a written notification concerning the complaint to THE COMPANY, using THE COMPANY's standard complaint or adverse event reporting form, and You agree to cooperate fully with THE COMPANY, and any government agencies concerned, in investigating and resolving the complaint. The provisions of this Section 6 concerning complaints and adverse events shall survive termination of this Agreement.

7. Changes to THE COMPANY Products or the Terms and Conditions

8. Acceptance

Acceptance of these Terms and Conditions supersedes all prior agreements between You and THE COMPANY regarding the sale or resale of THE COMPANY's Products.

9. Warranties

- A. Exclusive Remedy: THE COMPANY warrants that each of THE COMPANY's Products, when shipped by THE COMPANY, will conform to the applicable specifications published by THE COMPANY. THE COMPANY additionally warrants that all services performed or otherwise provided by THE COMPANY will be performed with due care in a professional and competent manner. As its sole obligation, and Your (and Your Customers') exclusive remedy for any breach of any warranty relating to THE COMPANY's Products, THE COMPANY will, at its own expense, replace the defective product or refund the amounts paid to THE COMPANY for such product. In addition, for any breach of any warranty relating to services provided by THE COMPANY, THE COMPANY will, at its own expense, re-perform the Services which gave rise to the breach or, at THE COMPANY's option, refund the Services Fee(s) paid by You for Services which gave rise to the breach.
- B. Reliance: The express warranties in this Section 9 are in lieu of all other warranties, whether express, implied, or statutory, regarding THE COMPANY's Products and services, including any warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement of third-party rights. You acknowledge that You have relied on no warranties other than the express warranties in this Section 9.
- C. No Other Warranties: You agree not to make or publish any representations, warranties, or guarantees on behalf of THE COMPANY concerning any Product, that are inconsistent with the product warranties in this Section 9.
- D. Returns: THE COMPANY Products may not be returned to THE COMPANY without THE COMPANY's prior written authorization. Any approved returns may be subject to restocking charges payable by You or the Customer.

- E. Survival: The provisions of this Section 9 concerning warranties shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. Required THE COMPANY Product Education

- A. Education Requirement: THE COMPANY believes that it is essential that all Partners complete a required education program on the effective use of THE COMPANY's Products by their Customers. This education program will be provided by THE COMPANY and will cover, among other things, the mechanisms of action, indications, and contra-indications for each Product, how each Product should be used, what potential side effects and/or adverse reactions might occur, what precautions, if any, should be followed in the use of THE COMPANY's Products, what potential drug interactions, if any, might be associated with the use of THE COMPANY's Products, and THE COMPANY's adverse event reporting procedures. The education program will also cover the administrative and financial arrangements applicable Partners. You agree that:
- B. You, and each licensed medical professional in Your Practice who may recommend THE COMPANY's Products, or assist Customers in the order of THE COMPANY's Products, will be asked to complete THE COMPANY's education program. Any new licensed medical professional who joins Your Practice while this Agreement is in effect shall also be asked to complete the required education program prior to participating in the Services Agreement.
- C. Non-compliance: Non-compliance with the provisions of this Section 10 may result in THE COMPANY reducing or withholding any Retained Revenue to which You might otherwise be entitled. THE COMPANY may terminate this Agreement if it becomes aware that Your Practice has not complied with this requirement and such non-compliance is not promptly corrected.

11. Limitation of Liability

Neither of us will be liable to the other for any consequential, indirect, exemplary, special or incidental damages, including any lost data or profits, arising from or relating to these Terms and Conditions, or to the products and/or the services provided hereunder. To the extent permitted under applicable law, each of our total cumulative liability in connection with these Terms and Conditions and the products and/or services provided hereunder, whether in contract or tort or otherwise, will not exceed the Retained Revenues in Your Partner Account for the calendar quarter preceding the events giving rise to such liability. The provisions of this Section 11 concerning limitation of liability shall survive termination of this Agreement.

 - 1) Upon termination, You will be entitled to any amounts in Your Partner Account as of the date of termination, subject to a final accounting by THE COMPANY.

- D. Effect of Termination on THE COMPANY: The termination of this Agreement shall not limit or restrict THE COMPANY from directly selling THE COMPANY's Products to Your Patients. After the date of termination, any new sales of THE COMPANY's Products (including new or continued Subscription orders) to Your patients will thereafter be deemed direct sales of THE COMPANY and no amounts will be due to You or Your Practice related to such sales.

13. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

Governing Law: This Agreement will be governed by the laws of Delaware, without regard for its conflicts of law principles. If a dispute or controversy regarding any matter under these Terms and Conditions arises between us which we are unable to resolve, such dispute shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration in lieu of any proceeding before any court. We each agree that we will participate in any such arbitration in good faith, and that we will share equally in its costs. Section 1320d, et. seq., 45 C.F.R. §164.502(e) and §164.504(e), governing protected health information("PHO") and business associates under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and regulations promulgated thereunder, as amended from time to time (statute and regulations hereafter collectively referred to as "HIPAA"). Covered Entity and Business Associate may be referred to herein individually as a "Party" or collectively as the "Parties".

STATEMENT OF AGREEMENT

- 1. HIPAA Compliance and Agents. Business Associate hereby agrees to comply with the "Business Associate" requirements under HIPAA, throughout the term of this Agreement. Further, Business Associate agrees that to the extent it has access to PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity, Business Associate will fully comply with the requirements of HIPAA and this Agreement with respect to such PHI; and, further, that every agent, employee, subsidiary, and affiliate of Business Associate to whom it provides PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity, will be required to fully comply with HIPAA, and will be bound by the same restrictions and terms and conditions as set forth in this Agreement.
- 2. Use and Disclosure; Rights. Business Associate agrees that it shall not to use or disclose PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity, except as permitted under this Agreement or as required by law. Business Associate acknowledges that this Agreement does not in any manner grant Business Associate any greater rights than Covered Entity enjoys, nor shall it be deemed to permit or authorize Business Associate to use or further disclose PHI in a manner that would otherwise violate the requirements of HIPAA if done by Covered Entity.
- 3. Required or Permitted Uses. Business Associate agrees that it is permitted to use or disclose PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity, only: (a) upon obtaining the authorization of the patient to whom such PHI pertains, in accordance with 45 C.F.R. §164.502(a)(1)(iv) and §164.508, (b) upon obtaining the consent of a patient to whom such PHI pertains, if the use or disclosure is for purposes of treatment, payment, or health care operations, in accordance with 45 C.F.R. §164.502(a)(1)(ii) and §164.506, or (c) without an authorization or consent, if in accordance with 45 C.F.R. §164.506, §164.510, §164.512, §164.514(e), §164.514(f), §164.514(g), or as otherwise permitted or required by agreement or law. In addition, Business Associate may use PHI received in its capacity as a business associate to Covered Entity, if necessary, for Business Associate's proper management and administration of its business or to carry out its legal responsibilities.
Safeguards; Location. Business Associate agrees to develop and use appropriate procedural, physical, and electronic safeguards to prevent misuse of PHI. Upon written request from Covered Entity, Business Associate agrees to inform Covered Entity of the location of any PHI disclosed by Covered Entity to Business Associate, or created by Business Associate on behalf of Covered Entity, and held by or under the control of Business Associate or those to whom Business Associate has disclosed such PHI.
- 4. Minimum Necessary. Business Associate shall limit any use, disclosure, or request for use or disclosure of PHI to the minimum amount necessary to accomplish the intended purpose of the use, disclosure, or request, in accordance with the requirements of HIPAA. Business Associate represents that all uses, disclosures, and requests it will make shall be the minimum necessary in accordance with HIPAA requirements. Covered Entity may, pursuant to HIPAA, reasonably rely on any requested disclosure as the minimum necessary for the stated purpose when the information is requested by Business Associate. Business Associate acknowledges that if Business Associate is also a covered entity, as defined by HIPAA, Business Associate is required, independent of Business Associate's obligations under this Agreement, to comply with the HIPAA minimum necessary requirements when making any request for PHI from Covered Entity.

5. Records; Covered Entity Access. Business Associate shall maintain such records of PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity and shall document subsequent uses and disclosures of such information by Business Associate as may be deemed necessary and appropriate in the reasonable discretion of Business Associate. Business Associate shall provide Covered Entity with reasonable access, during normal business hours, to examine and copy such records and documents of Business Associate as reasonably pertain to PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity. Business Associate and Covered Entity agree to cooperate in good faith with each other and to assist each other in complying with the requirements of HIPAA and any investigation of either party regarding compliance with HIPAA conducted by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services ("DHHS"), Office of Civil Rights, or any other administrative or judicial body with jurisdiction.
6. DHHS Access to Books, Records, and Other Information. Business Associate shall make available to DHHS all necessary and appropriate information, as needed, regarding its internal practices, as well as reasonable access to its books and records relating to the use and disclosure of PHI received from, or created or received by Business Associate on behalf of, Covered Entity for purposes of determining the Covered Entity's or Business Associate's compliance with HIPAA.
7. Designated Record Set; Individual Access. Business Associate shall maintain a designated record set, as defined by HIPAA, for each individual patient for which it has PHI that was received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity. In accordance with an individual's right to access to their own PHI under HIPAA, Business Associate shall make available all PHI in that designated record set to the individual to whom that information pertains, or to such individual's representative, upon a written request by such individual or such individual's representative.
8. Accounting. Business Associate shall make available all PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity or any other related information reasonably required to provide, or assist in preparing, an accounting of disclosures in accordance with HIPAA.
9. Report of Improper Use or Disclosure. Business Associate shall report to Covered Entity any information of which it becomes aware concerning any use or disclosure of PHI received from, or created or received on behalf of, Covered Entity that is not permitted under this Agreement.

SALES TAX ADDENDUM TO PARTNER SERVICES AGREEMENT

This is an addendum (“Addendum”) to the Partner Services Agreement between PRN Physician Recommended Nutraceuticals, LLC DBA Doctor’s Advantage Products (“The Company”) and the Physician Partner Practice / Covered Entity identified on the Acknowledgement (“You” or “Partner”). This Addendum will be effective when both of us have signed the Acknowledgment. All capitalized terms shall have the meaning given in the Partner Services Agreement, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Under the Partner Services Agreement, You understand that You may sell The Company’s Products to Customers in either or both of the following two ways:

- A. The Company’s Products may be sold directly in Your office from Your inventory.
- B. The Company’s Products may also be sold on a “Direct Ship” basis, by which The Company’s Products are ordered by Your Customers from The Company, which acts as a fulfillment agent on Your behalf, or on behalf of Your Practice, in processing these orders. The Company then ships The Company’s Products, and bills and collects all charges for such Products, on Your behalf, or on behalf of Your Practice. This type of sales arrangement is also known as a “Drop Ship” arrangement, and The Company serves as the “Drop Shipper” in such arrangements. In the Partner Services Agreement, this is also referred to as Doctor Directed Delivery (3D).

In both of these instances (sales in Your office from Your inventory, and sales to Your Customers on a Direct Ship or Drop Ship basis), You, or Your Practice, are considered to be the seller of The Company’s Products. The Company is the wholesaler of the products to You, and acts as Your fulfillment agent, or the Drop Shipper, to support Your retail sale.

You confirm that You have been informed of the following by The Company in connection with such sales:

The Company’s Products are generally classified as dietary supplements by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”).

The laws of the state and/or municipality in which Your professional offices are located (“Your Tax Jurisdiction(s)”), indicate that the retail sale of dietary supplements may be subject to sales tax.

The laws of Your Tax Jurisdiction(s) generally require that persons or entities who or which engage in the retail sale of taxable items must register with such Tax Jurisdictions as a retailer, and must remit sales taxes to the Tax Jurisdictions on all taxable sales.

The Company’s standard business practice for Direct Ship sales is to support its Partners by collecting applicable sales taxes from their Customers on behalf of the Partner, and then sending all collected taxes to the Partner on a monthly basis, along with a report that gives the Partner all of the information he or she needs to remit the collected taxes and file applicable sales tax forms with the taxing authorities.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, by executing this Addendum, You represent to The Company that You and/or Your Practice do not otherwise engage in the sale of items that would trigger sales tax registration and remittance, including the sale of The Company’s Products from Your inventory or other items the sale of which is subject to sales tax, and You are not familiar with the rules and regulations concerning registration as a retailer with Your respective Tax Jurisdictions, or with collecting and remitting sales taxes. You further represent that You and/or Your Practice lack the personnel, software, training, and/or other necessary resources to effectively collect and remit sales taxes on retail sales of The Company’s Products.

Based on the foregoing, and in order to ensure that Your Tax Jurisdictions receive all of the sales taxes due on the retail sale of The Company’s Products by You or Your Practice, The Company shall, as an additional service, collect, report, and remit such sales taxes on all Direct Ship or Drop Shipped sales of The Company’s Products made on Your behalf, or on behalf of Your Practice, under The Company’s sales tax I.D. number as though The Company were the retailer.

If, at any time, You or Your Practice do engage in the sale of The Company’s Products from Your inventory, or of other items the sale of which is subject to sales tax, You agree to notify the Company and provide The Company with a valid Resellers Certificate. At which time The Company shall cease collecting and remitting sales taxes on Direct Ship or Drop Shipped sales of The Company’s Products made on behalf of You or Your Practice, and revert to The Company’s standard business practice for Direct Ship sales as set forth in Paragraph 0 above. You agree that,

PRN Physician Recommended Nutraceuticals & Doctor's Advantage Products
Sales Tax Addendum for Partner Services Agreement

from that time forward, You, or Your Practice, will instead be responsible for remitting such sales taxes to the Tax Jurisdictions on all taxable sales, including Direct or Drop Shipped Sales.

The Company does not provide tax or legal advice to its Physician Partners. As the seller of The Company's Products to Your Customers, it is Your responsibility to consult with Your tax and/or legal advisors, as You deem necessary, in order to understand Your tax-related obligations and confirm that the provisions of this Addendum are sufficient to assist You to meet such obligations.

You confirm that You are authorized to sign on behalf of You and of Your Practice, and You intend to be legally bound hereby.

The terms and conditions of this Addendum will apply to all matters concerning state and/or local sales taxes on the supply and sale of The Company's Products on or after the Effective Date hereof, and they supersede any different or additional terms of any purchase order, order confirmation, or similar form, including any pre-printed or standard terms of any purchase order.

By signing the Acknowledgment, we each agree to be legally bound by this Addendum to the Partner Services Agreement.
